Letter for S3 parents

Senior Phase Induction – Parent Session

Thursday 10th June, 7pm (online)

Dear Parents/Carers,

As we approach the end of term, our pupils will soon be moving on into their 2021-22 classes. We are all looking forward to a fresh start, and keeping our fingers crossed that the new school year will see far less disruption to learning.

Your child will be moving into S4 and beginning to study for SQA certificates. This is an important step, and we want to support them in making this transition to Senior Phase study.

On Friday 11th June, the new S4 will have an induction into Senior Phase. This will include practical details such as what their timetable is, how they get to college if they have chosen a college-based course and how much of their free time they should expect to spend on individual study. There will also be some time looking at preparing for life after S4, with input from our Careers and Developing the Young Workforce staff. But the key part of the day is the provision of skills for success in Senior Phase study, for example techniques for remembering information for assessments, and work on the resilience needed to keep going when study gets tough. This last part is provided by an external company, "Positively Mad".

There will be a virtual session for parents at 7pm on Thursday 10th June. In this session, I will give you relevant practical information which has been shared with your child, and then the Positively Mad presenter, Shenaz Pribhai, will show you some of the techniques she will be teaching pupils. Class teachers will also be hearing from Shenaz, meaning that home and school are able to work together to reinforce the messages and techniques your child needs for success.

Below you will find instructions for joining this session. If you are not able to join us live, the session will be recorded for later viewing.

Kind regards

Jane Partridge, Head Teacher
